Dear Mr. Shalvoy:

Congratulations on your third successful row around Long Island to support breast cancer research. Your personal commitment to this cause is an inspiration and a reminder to all of us that each person has the ability to make a positive difference in the lives of others.

It is a rare individual whose life has been untouched in some way by breast cancer. In the last few years alone, I have seen many of my friends wage their own battles against breast cancer. I have seen as well and know firsthand the enormous progress that has been made in the early diagnosis and the treatment of the disease. You have contributed personally to this progress by raising significant funds for breast cancer research.

Thank you again for making a difference in the lives of many women and families.

Sincerely yours,

Hilary Rodham Clinton
